

1764 Kaya

Life as a Native American girl

“I always take time to respect the Earth”

1774 Felicity Merriman

Life at the start of the Revolutionary War

“Today, I declare my independence”

1824 Josefina Montoya

Life on a ranch in New Mexico

“Today, I’ll use my heart to heal others”

1864 Addy Walker

Life escaping slavery

“Today, I’ll keep my family strong”

1904 Samantha Parkington

Life in proper society

“Today is my chance to help others”

1914 Rebecca Rubin

Life acting in the city

“Today, my heart takes center stage”

1934 Kit Kittredge
Life in the Great Depression

“A better tomorrow is mine to create”

1941 Nanea Mitchell

Life during Pearl Harbor

“I'll give my help and my heart during wartime”

1954 Maryellen Larkin

Life in a big family

“I follow my heart instead of the crowd”

1964 Melody Ellison

Life fighting for civil rights

“Today, I will lift my voice and sing out”

1974 Julie Albright

Life in changing times

“Now is my time to stand up and fight for what's right”

